Ethel Bearing On Bermuda In 95-Mile Winds

MIAMI (AP) — Hurricane Ethel, fifth tropical storm of the season, bore down on Bermuda today with 95-mile winds. She threatened to score a direct hit. Gales were expected to lash the resort island in the mid-Atlantic early today. Hurricane-force winds were expected around noon.

Meanwhile, thousands of people in Georgia and Florida began a massive cleanup and repair job in the wake of Hurricane Dora. Ethel's destructive sister.

The residents had President Johnson's promise of federal support. He picked his way through muck, debris and shattered buildings in Jacksonville, Fla., and Brunswick, Ga., during a dramatic personal inspection tour Friday. "We are going to bring the resources of the federal government together to meet this crisis," he said.

The cause of the crisis, Dora, second hurricane to strike Florida within two weeks, was drowning herself in Georgia.

Dora's winds were little more than squalls, but the tons of rain she dropped flooded homes and highways and sent hundreds of snakes wriggling from river bottoms into the trees.

For a while, Ethel whipped around the same path that Dora took toward Florida. But Friday night, she veered sharply to the north and charged toward Bermuda.

Although not as large as Dora or as well-organized as Cleo — the other hurricane to strike land this season — Ethel was still a "respectable storm," said forecaster Arnold Sugg of the National Hurricane Center in Miami.

Florida Civil Defense Director Col. H. W. Tarkington, estimated Florida's damage at $200 million. He said $184 million damage was done to private property.

Johnson said federal aid would be pumped into Florida as soon as disaster surveys were completed.

"The Army Corps of Engineers is already busy on plans to assist in the rebuilding of your public beaches," he said.

Dora swept more than 2.5 million cubic yards of sand from Florida's white beaches, more than would normally be eroded in 20 years, the University of Florida estimated.

Arkansans Face Charges of Robbery

OSCEOLA, Ark. (AP) — Charges of robbery and assault with intent to kill were placed against two Osceola men Thursday in the robbery and wounding of a West-Memphis man a week earlier, Sheriff William Berryman said.

Berryman identified the men as William Jackie Raper, 24, and Bobby Wayne Acree, 19.

Their arrests resulted in release of two teen-agers who had been taken into custody for questioning.

The robbery victim, Fred Shaeffer, is in a Memphis hospital. He is listed in satisfactory condition with head wounds. He told police he was attacked by two hitchhikers and at one time he identified pictures of the teen-agers, Berryman said.

The youths were arrested at Fort Smith and returned to Osceola for questioning. Berryman said, however, that their stories checked out and he continued the investigation which led to arrest of Raper and Acree.

Mineral Springs Man Is Injured Friday Night

A late model pickup, driven by Robert Morehead of Mineral Springs, went out of control on Highway 67, between Emmet and Prescott about 9:30 Friday night and ended up in the ditch. Morehead was taken to St. Michael's Hospital in Texarkana. Trooper Bob Cockman of Prescott investigated.

Clear to partly cloudy and cooler today and tonight.

White Oak May Become Park

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Publicity and Parks Commission was to survey White Oak Lake between Prescott and Camden today as a possible site for a new state park.

The Prescott Junior Chamber of Commerce has headed a move for a state park which would cover as much as 2,000 acres. It would also serve Hope, Magnolia and El Dorado.

The lake is owned by the state Game and Fish Commission.

Fulbright Again Lashes Goldwater

WASHINGTON (AP) — Arkansas Sen. J. William Fulbright accused Barry Goldwater Thursday of admonishing the nation not to fear nuclear war "as if it were craven and dishonorable to wish to avoid the incineration" of millions.

Fulbright said the Republican presidential nominee is "trying to apply the ethics of a football game to a contest involving the survival of the human race."

Fulbright's speech was a follow-up to his speech Tuesday in which he said that there is "little possibility the nation could escape disaster" under foreign policies Goldwater proposes.

Renewing his attack Thursday, Fulbright said that the overriding challenge of our time is to reduce and perhaps eliminate the challenge of nuclear war.

He listed Goldwater among those "who believe it is cowardly and immoral to make the avoidance of nuclear war a preeminent goal of our foreign policy."

Taylor Returning to Viet Nam

HONOLULU (AP) — Maxwell Taylor, U.S. ambassador to Viet Nam, arrived here today en route to Saigon after a conference with President Johnson.

Taylor's aides said the ambassador would spend most of the day in Honolulu before resuming his flight to the Vietnamese capital at an unspecified time tonight.

Old Historical Washington Boasts a Rare and Valuable Collection of Old Guns

By JOHN HEUSTON
Travel Writer

Arkansas Publicity and Parks Commission

Firearms played an important role in shaping the pattern of American history. The image of stalwart pioneers marching westward carrying their "three indispensable tools" — the Bible, ax and rifle — remains strong in American ideals.

The collecting of antique firearms is a growing hobby and noteworthy gun collections open to the public are popular tourist attractions.

Arkansas has two such outstanding large private gun collections open to the public. The Saunders Museum at Berryville, housing the lifetime collection of the late Col. C. Burton Saunders, is world famous for quality and graphic display.

A lesser known, but equally fine exhibit of firearms, is the B. W. Edwards collection on display at the Old Washington Restoration Foundation Museum at Washington in Hempstead County.

Washington is now a sleepy, oak shaded town northwest of Hope. But Washington has carved its niche deep in Arkansas history, literally, as birthplace of the infamous "Bowie Knife," staging area for the Texas revolution and the state's Confederate Capitol during the Civil War.

B. W. Edwards is a Hope, Ark., contractor and advanced arms collector. He has assembled his collection over the past 20 years and, oddly enough, seldom traveled out of Arkansas to do it.

The numbered collection is fully described and housed in 30 well lighted glass cases in a "burglar proof" air-conditioned former bank building.

The collection has many rare pieces. One is a .52 caliber smoothbore "Hawken" Buffalo gun made by the famous J. S. Hawken of St. Louis. Hawken rifles are synonymous with the

Soybean and Rice Yield Goes Higher

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department Thursday increased its estimate of the 1964 soybean and rice crops in Arkansas.

Soybean production was forecast at 20 bushels per acre and 60.8 million bushels production. Last month the prediction was for 18 bushels per acre at 54,720,000.

The national forecast for soybeans dropped from the previous month.

Last year the yield was 17.5 bushels an acre and the total production was 51,152,000.

The USDA forecast rice production in the state at 4,300 pounds an acre and 18,490,000 hundred pound bags production. Last month's forecast was 4,250 pounds per acre and 18,275,000 hundred pound bags.

The 1963 yield was 4,250 pounds per acre and 18,275,000 hundredweight production.

Corn for grain was forecast at 24 bushels per acre and 3,720,000 bushels production. Last month the forecast was for 25 bushels per acre and 3,875,000 bushels production.

The corn yield last year was 34 bushels per acre and production was 5,984,000 bushels.

The forecast for winter wheat stayed steady this month at 14,685,000 bushels. Production last year was 5,208,000 bushels. The jump is due to the dropping of controls.

The peach crop forecast was the same at 1.1 million bushels, compared to 1,47,000 bushels last year.

Got Mad About Opening a Door

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — When Robert F. Murphy's estranged wife refused to open the door, the 35-year-old San Francisco truck driver took offense police said.

He smashed his pickup truck four times into the side of the house, finally landing in the kitchen.

Police booked the trucker Thursday for investigation of assault with a deadly weapon — the pickup truck.

fur trappers of the Rocky Mountains and were their favorite shoulder weapons. These short flintlock big-bore rifles are as characteristic of the "mountain men" as the long full-stocked "Kentucky rifles" are of Daniel Boone's era.

Case No. 20 in the museum contains one of the most sought after items among Winchester collectors, a .40 caliber "Volcanic" pistol. These early lever-action handguns whose bullet contained the powder charge in a hollow in its base, were the forerunners of the famous Winchester line of lever-action repeating rifles.

Mr. Edwards also has what may be a "one of a kind" Remington pistol. Standard models of this .50 caliber Remington single-shot pistol are all marked with the patent date of 1865.

The one Mr. Edwards has is marked Oct. 1, 1861, and May 15, 1861. Since no authorities on Remington pistols of this type know of such an early date, Mr. Edwards believes he may have a rare prototype model of the standard production arm. He is still trying to unravel the mystery.

The museum also has a fine display of percussion and cartridge model Colt revolvers; "Kentucky" or "Pennsylvania" rifles and Winchester and Remington arms, plus many others.

There is also an honored place in the museum for what many authorities believe is an original "James Black made" Bowie Knife.

Pioneer cutter James Black made the famous "Bowie Knife" for Co. James Bowie at Old Washington in 1831. Bowie made his knife, and James Black's craftsmanship, famous before his death at the fall of the Alamo during the Texas war for independence.

The Edwards' gun collection, and Old Washington's many historic site, are a "must" stopover for tourists in south Arkansas.

Cold Front Bears Down on Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A cold front was bearing down on Arkansas today, bringing showers and an end to 90-degree temperatures.

The front approached from the north and its effects were expected to be felt over the state by Saturday.

The forecast calls for temperatures to range 6 to 10 degrees below normal highs of 80 to 85 for the next several days.

Showers were expected to hit about 40 per cent of the state in all sections except the south-west.

Mid-afternoon high temperatures Thursday were generally in the 90s and overnight lows ranged in the high 60s and low 70s.

Districting Compromise Is Probable

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON (AP) — Supporters claimed today chances were better than even that the Senate would adopt a compromise solution in its fight over legislative reapportionment.

The compromise, reportedly backed by President Johnson, would declare that it is the "sense of Congress" that court-ordered reapportionment of state legislatures be delayed.

The compromise lacks the force of a proposal by Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen, which would delay for at least one year enforcement of the Supreme Court's ruling that both houses of state legislatures be apportioned according to population.

Dirksen's proposal is a major barrier to early adjournment of Congress.

A vote on the compromise is scheduled or next Tuesday after two test votes Thursday.

In the key action, the Senate voted 49 to 38 against tabling — and thus killing — Dirksen's proposal, which has been offered as a rider to the pending $3.3-billion foreign aid authorization bill.

Opponents of the Dirksen rider said it would require a shift of only six votes to adopt the compromise, which is being backed by Assistant Senate Democratic Leader Hubert H. Humphrey, Johnson's running mate in the Nov. 3 presidential election.

The compromise was offered by Sens. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., and Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn. Javits told newsmen "the chances are 50-50 or better" that the Senate will adopt it. Other supporters agreed the odds are "better than even."

The compromise is the Senate's pending business as a substitute for Dirksen's rider, which would delay reapportionment in the absence of highly unusual circumstances. Dirksen's rider was designed to give legislators a chance to nullify the Supreme Court's ruling with a constitutional amendment.

Asia's Future May Depend On U.S. Patience

By WILLIAM L. RYAN

AP Special Correspondent

South Viet Nam's — and Southeast Asia's — future may now depend upon who has more patience: The Chinese and North Vietnamese Communists or the Americans.

High U.S. officials speak of the possibility of negotiation to end the frustrating, expensive war, with a big if — if the Communists will leave their neighbors alone. There seems little prospect of that.

But if this talk is taken in Peking and Hanoi as a sign that U.S. patience is wearing thin, the result can be considerably stepped up effort to push the conflict to a conference table.

Ho Chi Minh's North Vietnamese Communists already have displayed much patience. They invested 20 years and resources they could ill afford in the attempt to take over all Indochina. There is not the slightest sign that they intend to stop short of anything but an agreement which would leave South Viet Nam at their mercy.

Ho likely would welcome a conference, however. He already has laid down his terms and repeats them at every opportunity. He says all foreign military personnel and equipment must be withdrawn from South Viet Nam.

And then comes the hooker: "Let the people of South Viet Nam settle their own affairs on the basis of national independence, democracy, peace and neutrality, so they can later attain peaceful reunification in accordance with the program of the NLFV (the National Liberation Front for South Viet Nam)."

This is doubletalk. In this language, independence, peace, and democracy all translate to "Communist." Reunification in accordance with the NLFV program would mean surrender to the Communists, since that is the cover front for the Communist Viet Cong guerrillas.

He might accept less at a conference table, but not much less. He has much patience. He might accept less at a conference table, but not much less. He has much patience.

U.S. policy makers indicate resignation to the idea that military efforts alone cannot win the Indochina war.

Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor, who has just returned to Saigon after conferring with administration leaders, expressed confidence that the war would "end victoriously from our point of view."

But Taylor says the political situation in South Viet Nam must be made stable. Second Communist guerrilla forces must be cleared out of the four provinces immediately around Saigon.

South Viet Nam is not only a house divided, it is a house splintered. The dilemma is awesome. Instability springs from dissatisfaction among educated elements with lack of representative government.

But can a regime up to its neck in civil war afford the luxury of an attempt at parliamentary democracy? Indeed, can there be anything like representative government in a nation which has lost control of much of its territory to a determined enemy?

Obviously, the enemy must be cleared out if the nation is to be politically stable. But at best that will take a long time.

Yet time is an important commodity. It permits the patient Communist campaign of attrition against the nerves and staying power of south Viet Nam to do its work.

Shouldn't Have Described Content

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — A clerk in a bus depot eyed William Janowitz suspiciously as he described the contents of his pay locker.

Janowitz, 20, of Columbus, Ohio, had told the clerk he had lost his key, and the clerk asked him what was in it.

Lock picks, glass cutters and a hacksaw blade, Janowitz replied. The clerk called police, who arrested Janowitz.

Janowitz waived an extradition hearing Tuesday and was returned to Columbus, where he faces burglary and theft charges.

Consumer Actually Builds His Own Credit With a Credit Bureau Merely Reporting It

By MARY ANITA LASETER

Star Feature Writer

Did you know that your Credit Bureau, Credit Bureau of Hempstead County, Inc., is a member of the Associated Credit Bureaus of America and by that membership is affiliated with over 3,000 other offices in 50 states and 5 foreign countries — Canada, England, India, Colombia, and Puerto Rico? And, did you know that the two biggest users of this service are the banks and the FBI?

The Hope Rotary Club was asked these questions and others and heard interesting facts about their answers yesterday at the noon luncheon meeting held at the Diamond. Webb Lasey, Jr., manager of the local Credit Bureau and Collection Agency, told the Rotarians that the Credit Bureau is one of North America's least known businesses. This is because it does not directly serve the public. It serves credit granters everywhere who themselves serve the public.

A Credit Bureau was first organized in Hope on February 15, 1930, was owned by the merchants, and was called the Retail Merchants Association. J.C. Carlton was the secretary and operated the business from the Chamber of Commerce office, then located in the City Hall. By 1933 it was no longer feasible for the merchants to continue with the Bureau, and Mr. Carlton assumed its private operation. For a time he had an office in the City Hall, then in the First National Bank, and finally in his home.

In February 1958 the current owner set up offices in downtown Hope. The Credit Bureau of Hempstead County, Inc. now is located in the Masonic Building on South Main Street with Mrs. Elmer Neighbors and Mrs. Bob Rosenbaum as secretaries. The office is world-wide in scope, and in the past year it has made a report for a Credit Bureau in Honolulu, Hawaii, and has collected an account for a concern in Madrid, Spain.

Both of these people were servicemen who had formerly made their homes here.

What is a Credit Bureau? And what does your Credit Bureau offer you here in Hempstead and Nevada Counties? A Credit Bureau gathers facts, records them on customers' files and reports such data to inquiring credit granters. The Bureau investigates everything which may bear on a person's good or bad reputation for meeting consumer credit obligations. It also makes specialized reports to help determine the desirability of applications for rental accommodations, loans to build, modernize and equip homes, personnel reports, and many others totaling about 28.

Two facts stand out. The consumer actually builds his own credit record; the Credit Bureau merely records and reports it. The Credit Bureau can save you money: 1. by making Fact-bill reports on prospective customers to help determine whether to grant credit; 2. by securing the information with no wasted effort or expense; 3. by providing specialized personnel reports on applicants for employment; 4. by supplying valuable information to help solve collection problems.

More than 100 years ago, one of America's greatest statesmen, Daniel Webster, said: "Credit has done a thousand times more to enrich mankind than all the gold mines in the world. It has exalted labor, stimulated manufacture, and pushed commerce on every sea." Webster probably thought of "credit" as belief in fellowman — the one reason why it works.

Charges Cambodia Helping Commies

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — South Viet Nam formally charged today that neighboring Cambodia is fighting in open support of the Communist Viet Cong against forces of the Saigon government.

The Foreign Ministry made the charge in a communique warning that Viet Nam "holds the Cambodian government responsible for the grave consequences which may follow."

The communique was an extract of notes sent to the U.N. Security Council and the Japanese Embassy, which has been handling relations between Cambodia and South Viet Nam since they broke diplomatic ties last year.

MONTICELLO, Ark. (AP) — The Housing and Home Finance Agency notified Arkansas A&M College Thursday that it had approved a $735,000 loan to build a new women's dormitory and an addition to the student union building.

The new dormitory will accommodate 170 women.

Spa Chamber Asks Others for Help

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Mort Cox, executive vice president of the Hot Springs Chamber of Commerce, said Tuesday letters asking for support of the proposed amendment to legalize gambling have been sent to other chambers in Central Arkansas.

The Hot Springs chamber sponsored circulation of petitions asking the amendment be placed on the Nov. 3 ballot after Gov. Orval E. Faubus ordered gambling closed at Hot Springs last March.

The letters, sent to individual members, said the Hot Springs chamber believes the amendment, if passed, would have a favorable influence on the economy of the state and Central Arkansas for a number of reasons.

The amendment would allow casino gambling in Garland County.

The letter said taxation of the wagering would add more than $5 million to state revenues.

Typhoon Triggers a Landslide

HONG KONG (AP) — A landslide triggered by Typhoon Sally killed six persons and injured eight others in Hong Kong today.

The victims occupied a wooden hut crushed by rocks loosened by a torrential 10-hour downpour.

Rain lashed the British colony Thursday night and this morning after Typhoon Sally side-swiped the island.

The casualty toll from Typhoon Sally stood at eight dead and 30 injured. More than 10,000 Chinese refugees have been removed from low-lying shack villages and hillside huts.

More than seven inches of rain were recorded in 12 hours. Severe flooding was reported in many parts of Hong Kong.

Thinks Talks Might End Vietnam War

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Top U.S. officials say they believe it may become possible to negotiate an end to the war in South Viet Nam, but only after Red China and North Viet Nam are convinced they are backing a losing aggression.

Whether the anti-Communist fighting will have to be expanded beyond the borders of South Viet Nam before that result is achieved is one of the questions left open following the consultations here this week of Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor with President Johnson and other U.S. policy makers.

Taylor, who left Washington Thursday night to return to Saigon, said he is sure the South Vietnamese struggle "will end victoriously from our point of view."

But he declined to speculate on when it would end and he said this is not the time to talk about negotiations.

When asked if there had been any discussion in the conferences this week about an armistice with the Reds, Taylor replied "absolutely not."

The sessions confirmed two immediate major objectives in South Vietnamese policy.

The most important of these purposes, according to reports coming out of the sessions at the White House and State Department, is the formation of a stable South Vietnamese government in Saigon as quickly as possible.

Taylor is understood to have reported to President Johnson and others here that U.S.-backed Premier Nguyen Khanh has come to be regarded even by his political foes in Saigon as an almost indispensable man at the moment.

Taylor feels he is the one man who has broad support among major elements of the Vietnamese population, including politically powerful Buddhists, the Catholics and the military.

The other objective on which a start is expected in the immediate future is a clean-up of Communist guerrilla forces in the four provinces immediately around Saigon.

Officials said Taylor had received assurances from Premier Khanh that he intended to go forward with the operation without delay, even during the government reorganization.

In discussing the larger and long-range aspects of the South Vietnamese conflict, officials said, Taylor expressed the view that it would not be won by military means alone.

UA Swimming Pool Contract Let

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The University of Arkansas said Thursday that Tunc Construction Co. of Fayetteville was the apparent low bidder on construction of a new student health center and a swimming pool building. The health center bid was $454,392, and the bid on the swimming pool building was $363,410.

Goldwater To Head South Next Week

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater, elated over his first week of presidential campaigning, today starts a long weekend of rest before heading south Tuesday.

If you include those who watched him from the streets, Goldwater figures a quarter of a million people saw him during this drive that took him into nine states.

"When 250,000 turn out to see a Republican candidate," Goldwater said, "that means something."

In his first week, Goldwater went from New York to California, from Washington to Illinois, and wound up with an old-fashioned political rally Friday night at the Ogle County Fairgrounds in Oregon, Ill.

Pastor Works Many Hours on Sermons

By JACK MARTIN

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The notes of the organ fade away, the congregation settles back, and the pastor steps into his pulpit. He glances at his papers, perhaps, then begins his sermon. What the congregation hears may have begun taking shape when it filed out the door the previous week.

And, according to four Louisville clergymen, they might hear a lot more, if there was just time to prepare and develop sermons from the available ideas.

"Preparation takes a long time," said Rabbi J. J. Gittleman of congregation Adath Jeshurun. "Perhaps 20 hours — but you can't sit down for 20 hours."

So he works on at least a dozen ideas all the time, thinking, researching and organizing. He is able to develop only half the ideas he would like each year.

"Sermons really come out of the warp and woof of living," said the Rev. Cecil C. F. Wagstaff, assistant to the rector of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church.

He carries cards to jot down ideas. And although he believes it important "to keep within the collect, epistle and Gospel for the day," he also believes in trying "to make our theology as relevant as we can."

Dr. Wayne Ward, professor of Christian theology at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, and the Rev. Harry Pinkel, director of the pastoral year of theology for Carmelite priests, said sermons had a spiritual aspect that made them more than a speech.

"The real key to successful preaching is the preacher's own familiarity through reading and prayer," Father Pinkel said.

Dr. Ward said he used to distribute lists of his sermons and ask church members to check the ones that had been most helpful. "Usually they were how to meet life crises," he said. "Then he often developed these ideas into more sermons."

The four agreed that a good sermon should be short and prepared well in advance.

Great Falls Hands Out Copper Keys

GREAT FALLS, Mont. (AP) — Mayor Marian Erdmann presented Mrs. Barry Goldwater with a copper key to the city of Great Falls Thursday and said — in a friendly rib at Billings, Mont. — "We do not ask to have it returned."

Billings officials presented Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson with a key to the city last month and Mayor Willard Frazer's efforts to have it returned gained nationwide attention. Frazer later told the First Lady she could keep it but she sent it back anyway.

The wedding will be an event of September 18 in the bride-to-be's home.

Wedding Vows Are Repeated

Mrs. Delmer Weliver

The wedding of Miss Evelyn Symphory, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H.D.L. Van Bockern, Linesville, Pa., and Delmer Weliver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Weliver, Hope, was solemnized Sunday, September 6 at 3 p.m. in the First Baptist Church of Linesville.

The Rev. Silas Achlin, pastor, officiated in a setting of palms, candelabra, pink gladiolus and pink chrysanthemums.

The bride's aunt, Miss Esther Van Bockern of Cleveland, O., played a program of organ music that included Bach's "My Heart Ever Faithful." Mrs. Harold Gillette of Linesville sang "I'll Walk Beside You" and "Trio Sonata in F Major" was presented with the bride's brother, John Van Bockern, clarinet, his fiancée, Mlle. Gisele Thibault and Mr. Van Bockern are members of the Quebec

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a pure silk organza dress appliqued with plisse Chantilly lace. The long, tapering-sleeved bodice had a Sabrina neckline created of appliqued lace. The bell-designed gown had wide appliques of the lace on the skirt. The train was chapel-length. She wore a rose-point mantilla of lace on her head and carried white roses among cascading ivy.

Miss Margaret Steider, Conneaut Lake, Pa., was the maid of honor. She wore light pink silk organza in empire design with embroidery detail on the bodice. With the floor-length gown she had a picture hat of French braid with a wreath of flowers. She carried pink roses among cascading ivy.

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Robert Cummings is a television star of considerable distinction. He has survived, with no visible scars, involvement in three situation comedy series and has now embarked on his fourth. He is also one of a finite group of actors who permits the inclusion of his birth year (1910) in his official biography — and whose extraordinarily youthful appearance permits him to be cast as a youthful, susceptible bachelor.

Cummings this season emerges as a bachelor psychiatrist who accidentally becomes the uncomfortable custodian of a gorgeous robot named Rhoda whose plastic exterior and computer-innards were made for space experiments. The CBS series is called "My Living Doll" and the actor seems fascinated more by the problems facing his co-star, Julie Newmar, than by his own part.

Miss Newmar, the robot, was playing a scene in which she is flirting brazenly with a male visitor because her computer has inadvertently been "programmed" with some romance magazines.

"This is probably the most difficult role ever played by an actress," Cummings commented as we watched. "The character — if that's what you call it — she plays has no thoughts, no emotions, no desires, no ethics, no social conscience. It is very difficult because she cannot instigate anything and she cannot feel anything. She must divorce herself completely from her ego — which is the hardest thing in the world to do."

"I've Got a Secret," will start its 13th season Monday night on CBS combining a farewell program for Garry Moore, who is leaving after all these years, with a greeting program for Steve Allen, who takes over the host's job. The switch-over program actually was taped some time ago, since Moore and his wife sailed last week for England on the first leg of a year-long round-the-world trip. "Hollywood Palace," ABC's Saturday night variety show, will start its second season Sept. 19 with an innovation — a hostess. Debbie Reynolds will be the first woman to handle the introductions of the acts.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actress Elizabeth Taylor and her former husband, singer Eddie Fisher, have won another round in their court battle to force 20th Century-Fox films to account for revenues from the film "Cleopatra."

For the second time, Federal Judge Thurmond Clarke turned down the studio's attempt Thursday to have the suit dismissed. He refused the first dismissal request May 24.

Miss Taylor and Fisher own 85 per cent of MCL, a Swiss corporation, which in turn owns 35 per cent of the $40 million film. Fox owns 55 per cent and Walwa Films owns the remaining 10 per cent.

brother-in-law of the bridegroom, served as his best man. Ushers were Hollis Van Bockern, brother of the bride, and David Irons of Johnstown, Pa., cousin of the bride.

For the wedding the bride's mother wore a garnet dress with pink and beige accessories. The groom's mother wore gray in-striped silk with cranberry accessories. Each had a shoulder corsage of pink roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Orchid-colored asters and white snapdragons centered the serving table. Mrs. Carroll Irons of Michigan and Mrs. Wendell Irons of Florida served the wedding cake, and Miss Carol Green of Washington, D. C., poured the punch. Assisting in serving were Miss Gayle Simmerman, Miss Lynda Schambach, Miss Connie Powell, Miss Sandy Young, all of Linesville, and Mrs. David Irons, Johnstown, Pa.

On Saturday, September 5 a rehearsal dinner was given at the Howard Irons home. Hosts were the bride's uncles and aunts, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Irons and Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Irons, and covers were laid for 32 relatives and friends.

The newlyweds had a honeymoon in Northern Michigan and after September 14, they will be at home at 608 West Benton St., Iowa City, Iowa.

The bride attended the Presbyterian University School of Nursing in Pittsburgh and the American University in Washington, D. C. This fall she plans further study at the University of Iowa.

The bridegroom received his Bachelor of Music Education degree from Arkansas State College and for the past three years has been a member of the U.S. Army Concert Band in Washington, D. C. He has received an assistantship to work on his Master's degree this fall at the University of Iowa.

"DEAR ABBY"

TEN COMMANDMENTS FOR WIVES

By Abigail Van Buren

1. Defile not thy body neither with excessive foods, tobacco nor alcohol, that thy days may be long in the house which thy husband provideth for thee.
2. Putteth thy husband before thy mother, thy father, thy daughter and thy son, for he is thy lifelong companion.
3. Thou shalt not nag.
4. Permit no one to tell thee that thou art having a hard time of it; neither thy mother, thy sister nor thy neighbor, for the Judge will not hold her disapproval of thy husband.
5. Thou shalt not withhold affection from thy husband, for every man loveth to be loved.
6. Forget not the virtue of Life in Arkansas

By ALVIN SCHAY

Associated Press Writer

The Texarkana Gazette reports that a young woman who for the past several months has been working as a cashier in a personal loans office tells friends that the job is nice, but it has its drawbacks. She said she meets a lot of interesting people, but they're all broke.

Another woman who works for a Little Rock bank was recently manning the drive-in window of one of its branches. A depositor thought the name plaque at her window was a joke, but she said her name really was Mrs. Cash.

A Little Rock man who had to babysit with his 3-year-old son tried to keep the youngster from tearing up the house by dialing a time service number and letting the boy listen. The service, sponsored by a bank, fascinated his son for awhile.

A few days later the man was talking on the telephone, when he asked the boy if he would like to talk to his grandmother. "No, I want to talk to the First National Bank," the youngster replied.

Big signs must make big impressions.

Pete Moll Sr. of Stuttgart was in Brunswick, Me., last week when the wife of a restaurant owner asked where he was from. When he told her, she brightened and said: "STUTTGART! The Rice and Duck Capital."

Although the lady had never visited Stuttgart, she and her husband often saw the big sign on U.S. 70 as they drove to Little Rock their former home in Memphis.

A bird who used to call St. Francis County his home encountered an unusual, and unfortunate, incident last week. Seems its nest on the roof of Lincoln Senior High School caught fire.

Two wires touched when they were hit by a steel girder being moved into the school for construction purposes, a caught the next on fire. Damage, except to a now homeless bird, was slight even though a large amount of smoke caused evacuation of the students.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Martin of Jonesboro have an azalea which is apparently so well fed that it blooms not only during the spring, the normal time, but all through the summer.

When they first got the plant, all the wedding, watering and fertilizing in the world couldn't make it bloom. After a few years Mrs. Martin began feeding it a special "azalea food." Now it blooms from spring until fall's frost.

This Fruit

... looks like an apple from a good tree. God used this parable to teach an authoritative lesson of truth to some who were calling, "Lord, Lord." He answered, saying, "Not everyone that calls me Lord, shall get to heaven." He spoke plainly and used small words, and said, "Only those who bear good fruit will make it." See this tree loaded with fine fruit! Few of us stop to ponder its history. But every orchard expert knows well every sound tree. The good fruit is detectable from way off. The lesson is clear. Goodness all the way to the core is the kind of fruit God wants. Soundness of heart, purity of mind and integrity of character are essential if one's fruit is to please God. No one gathers grapes from thorns, or figs from thistles. Read the Sermon on the Mount; Meditate on I Corinthians; Hear what He says in Romans 8 and 12. Here one will find soil where good trees may grow and from which good fruit may be gathered.
